FROM KNOWLEDGE TO ACTION, FROM PHNOM PENH TO ANGKOR

RWHM 2026 is designed not just as a scientific conference, but as a platform for action, learning, and cultural exchange. We invite you to contribute to a "Sustainable Middle Ground" where modern science meets traditional wisdom, and where research meets community practice.

We welcome diverse forms of knowledge:
academic, practical, educational, and cultural.

- Researchers & Academics: Share scientific findings and policy insights.
- Practitioners & Engineers: Showcase real-world systems and field implementation.
- Educators & Youth: Present Rain School initiatives and future leadership models.
- NGOs & Communities: Share stories of impact, resilience, and local culture.
